- Sing a song of sixpence, a pocket full of rye,
Four and twenty blackbirds baked in a pie;
When the pie was opened the birds began to sing,
Wasn't that a dainty dish to set before the king?
 - The king was in his counting house counting out his money;
The queen was in her parlour eating bread and honey;
The maid was in the garden hanging out the clothes,
When down came a blackbird and pecked off her nose.
